PROGRAM INTERVENTIONS

SCHOOL DEVELOPMENT PLANNING (SDP)

Adopters can develop and implement viable School Development Plans for the adopted schools. SEF will offer capacity building workshops to facilitate adopters for devising these plans. The purpose of SDP will be to set out time bound targets and strategies for monitoring, adoption facilitation, capacity building of adopters. Research will also be conducted to evaluate the impact of adopted schools in improving the academic output of schools.

ENRICHMENT OF LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Since child centered learning environment is at the heart of SEF’s education philosophy, an enriched classroom experience is vital for students. These will entail story books, flash cards, reference books, classroom displays and other supplementary material to aid teachers and students to make learning an engaging experience. SEF will facilitate adopters in creating an environment within schools that allow for an enriching learning experience for students.

STUDENT ASSESSMENT

To gauge the impact of adopter driven quality initiatives on student learning outcomes and overall education standards of the school, SEF will conduct regular student assessment.
WHAT DO WE MEAN BY ‘ADOPTION’?

Adoption illustrates ‘nurturing’. In more than one way, adopting a school also means nurturing the school, children and other stakeholders. Most government schools in the province of Sindh lack quality education and basic facilities consequently exposing thousands of children to ill-equipped schools and poor quality of education. By adopting a school one can play a crucial role by improving the physical conditions and the standard of education in government schools.

SCHOOL ADOPTION

Through adoption the Sindh Education Foundation strives to establish sustainable public private partnership for government school improvement. SEF encourages individuals/organizations to adopt government schools and guides them to ensure government school revival.

CAN YOU BE AN ADOPTER?

You don’t have to be a registered NGO/CBO or a company. If you are a concerned individual or group with a keen interest in government school revitalization, you can be an adopter. The SEF will match you up with a school; preferably one of your choice.

- Improve school infrastructure and learning environment as per SDP targets.
- Undertake regular visits to the school.
- Ensure a congenial working environment in the school.

RIGHTS as an adopter

You are a caregiver, and a friend to the school and community. You will be provided a lot of support from the Sindh Education Foundation and the Department of Education to preserve and protect your investment of time and money in the school. However, a mutually respectful relationship will be ideal in the school, keeping in consideration that the parents, teachers and community members are the real custodians of the education interventions.
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the role of SEF in adoption?
SEF being the focal organization for the program is primarily responsible for facilitating school adoptions and working closely with the adopters and schools to achieve the desired school improvement outcomes. Other responsibilities include creating an interface amongst adopters, government and school, training adopters for School Development Planning, mobilizing learning resources to schools, annual school monitoring and student assessment. SEF will also help adopters to explore and identify resource mobilization and networking avenues for strengthening of adopted schools.

Is the Adopt-A-School program approved by the government?
Yes. The Adopt-A-School Program is approved and supported by the Government of Sindh. A new policy has been approved for expanding the program and empowering the adopters further to bring about sustainable transformation in public schools.

Can the adopter take any action against the school staff?
No. The Adopter cannot take any direct action against the school staff in any circumstances. The adopter has the right to submit reports against errant staff. Based on the written complaints of the adopter, the Department of Education is liable to take disciplinary action against errant staff. The adopter can also recommend policy level administrative changes within the government school setup.

When a school is adopted does the ownership of the school transfer to the adopter?
No. The adoption of a school does not entail the handing over of school property (i.e. building, material etc.) or the privatization/denationalization of the school. Adoption is a process by which an individual/organization becomes a caregiver or friend so as to improve the overall standard of the school.

What are the most common requirements of government schools?
Poor infrastructural conditions, missing basic facilities (toilets, clean drinking water), inadequate teaching staff (in terms of both quality and quantity), poor academic environment, lack of recreation and self development avenues for both students and teachers are some of the most pressing concerns faced by the public schools.
